NEIL NORMAN

AND HIS COSMIC ORCHESTRA

"The First and Only Science Fiction Rock Star" — New Times

"The King of Sci-Fi" — Richard Foos, Founder of Rhino Records

"A significant contributor to the sounds that the genre has come to adopt as its own over the years." — Gregorius Chant, Rue Morgue Magazine

The Band with Tim Russ on The Howard Stern Radio Show
L-R: Bill Burchell, J. Palmer, Kevin Karamitros, Tim Russ, Robin Quivers, Howard, Neil Norman, David Carr

Neil Norman is a widely diversified player in the music industry. The award-winning producer/performer is a driving force in bringing very intriguing genres of music to the public — world beat, rock, surf, power instrumental, state-of-the-art reissues, but especially Science Fiction! Neil played on his first record when he was only 16 and released his first album when he was 21. He now has over 100 successful albums (as producer or artist) in release and his sales are in the millions. Neil appears regularly at various sci-fi related events such as Laserium, Star Trek: The Experience in Las Vegas, Creation's annual Grand Slam Star Trek Conventions and the World Science Fiction Convention. They have also appeared internationally on such acclaimed television shows as Talk Soup, CBS Good Morning, The Sci-Fi Channel, Britain's highly rated morning show THE BIG BREAKFAST, MTV in Germany, and Brazil's top rated show XUXA. Neil and Tim Russ did a "Battle of The Bands" stint on the Howard Stern Radio Show. Neil performs on tour with Tim (Tuvok) Russ and many other Sci-Fi stars. He also hosts his own weekly Sci-Fi radio show! To keep abreast of Neil's activities check out our websites at:

BOOKS

There Is Nothing Wrong With Your Television Set!

With these words, each week, the mysterious control voice would usher us to the furthest reaches of the human imagination - THE OUTER LIMITS, a realm inhabited by Galaxy Beings, interdimensional beings, alien invaders, psychosexual monsters, chaotic energy clouds, Demons with Glass Hands, Zanti Misfits, clones, ET's, time travelers, formless entities and science run amok.

The first TV shows to truly showcase and integrate startling visual effects, THE OUTER LIMITS combined a phenomenal range of talents, including make-up expert John Chambers (Planet of the Apes), director Byron Haskin (War of The Worlds), Academy Award winning cinematographer Conrad Hall, and a singular effects conglomerate called Project Unlimited. Among the stars of THE OUTER LIMITS were Robert Duvall, Martin Landau, Martin Sheen, Sally Kellerman, Cliff Robertson, Bruce Dern, Chita Rivera and William Shatner.

Newly revised and updated, THE OUTER LIMITS COMPANION tells the whole story of this remarkable television series, from its genesis to the present day, with in-depth commentary from over 100 of the programs prime movers both in front of the camera lens and behind the scenes. Here are the plotlines, production background, critical overview and a wealth of incredibly rare photographs for each of the show's 49 episodes, as well as information on its subsequent influences on science fiction movies and TV as they are known today.

THE OUTER LIMITS COMPANION is a rich, nostalgic high quality memoir, an authoritative record, and an exciting journey back to the twilight of TV's Golden Age - a truly one-of-a-kind book about a genuinely unique television series.

"Enriquez builds solo that may start out with rumbling, rolling references to Erroll Garner, shift into a spatter of Art Tatum lacy, take off on some rollicking open-field running, twisting and turning through jagged, jumping figures and Roman candle explosions, with an apparently wild abandon that manages to stay very purposefully on the track." —John S. Wilson, New York Times
